

OPEN STUDIO MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS & REQUIREMENTS

Last updated: October, 2020

Email: membership@openstudio.ca

BENEFITS:

- Members are eligible to purchase rent and access the printmaking studio.
All artists seeking to use the studio must be approved by the Technical Director.
- Members are eligible to exhibit in Open Studio's Project Space.
- Members are eligible to apply for the Nick Novak and the Hexagon Special Projects Fellowship.
- Members are eligible for artist exchanges with print studios in other provinces and various open call opportunities.
- Members are eligible to consign their art in the Open Studio shop and online store.
Proposals are reviewed by the Sales & Archive Manager.
- Members receive a 10% discount on all education programs.
Please let staff know in advance of purchase to apply the discount.
- Members may be represented online through Open Studio's social media channels.
- Members are also eligible for discounts at:
 - Aboveground Art Supplies
 - Akau Framing
 - DeSerres Art Supplies
 - Gwartzman's Art Supplies
 - Gallery 44 weekend workshops
 - The Japanese Paper Place
 - The Paper Place
 - Paper House Studio
 - SWIPE: books on advertising & design

REQUIREMENTS:

- Members are required to pay an annual membership fee, currently $100.
- Members are strongly encouraged to volunteer. Volunteer time may include assistance with: office administration, event preparation and Board and Committee involvement.
- Members are strongly encouraged to donate one print work per Open Studio fundraiser.
- Members are encouraged to promote Open Studio whenever possible.
- Members shall give credit to Open Studio in exhibitions, catalogues, and other publications for works produced or executed at Open Studio.